New Touch Of Winter Felt Here

Monroe county residents who had barely recovered from December's wintry blast began to button up last night for more of the same. The first storm warnings began to appear shortly after 8 last night when weather observers at key points in Pennsylvania sent out chilly bulletins predicting "winter in one of its worst forms."

The "winter" predicted by weathermen called for snow, sleet and freezing rain, in that order.

At 9:30 p. m. only one point in Monroe county reported snow. This report came from Brodheadville where State police said light snow was falling.

The first snow fell on Stroudsburg at 10:04 p. m.

Within an hour roads in and around Stroudsburg were packed with a thin, slippery coat of frozen snow. Highways between Stroudsburg and Delaware Water Gap, Snyderville and Saylorsburg were reported in "bad condition" at 11:15 last night. The State Highway department called out crews to cinder the icy stretches.

Stroudsburg temperature reading at State police barracks was 28 degrees at 11:10 p. m.

Brodheadville State police said roads in that region were "slippery at all points leading from Brodheadville" including Effort mountain where below-freezing temperatures and lightly falling snow had combined in an early threat to safe driving. Highways at Mount Pocono were "icy and slick" at 11:30 p. m.

Highway department trucks and workers were sent out in the Effort region shortly after 10 p. m. Cindering crews crawled along curves and hills attempting to eliminate treacherously slippery streaks of ice and snow.

Trucks and workers were dispatched from the East Stroudsburg offices of the Highway Department at 11:24 last night to do battle with a snowfall which, despite weathermen's predictions, had not turned into sleet or rain.

The snowfall reached a depth of three inches in the York area and many other sections of the State reported at least an inch. Bedford and Cambria county roads were slushy after a light snow which turned into sleet and rain.

Ceilings Set For Potatoes

Washington, (AP)—A government order placing ceilings on the prices of white potatoes effective Jan. 19 was approved last night.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) said details of the order would not be made public until it is formally issued today.

Although OPS would not disclose ceilings, Congress members from potato-growing states said it provides for rollbacks under current market prices.

Potato prices have been rising sharply since September. The average price received by farmers has almost doubled in the last year, jumping from about 89 cents a bushel on Dec. 15, 1950 to $1.93 last December 15.

The order signed last night by OPS Director Michael V. Disalle sets ceilings at the shipper-wholesaler level, but an OPS spokesman said another order will be issued setting ceilings at retail.

McFarland Asks Short Session

Washington, (AP)—Senate majority leader McFarland of Arizona urged members of Congress yesterday to aim for a short and snappy session in 1952.

"We should transact our business as quickly as we can and get out as soon as possible," the Democratic leader said at a news conference he called after returning to Washington from his home state.

The second session of the 82nd Congress begins Tuesday. The first session ran for 291 days before adjourning last Oct. 20.

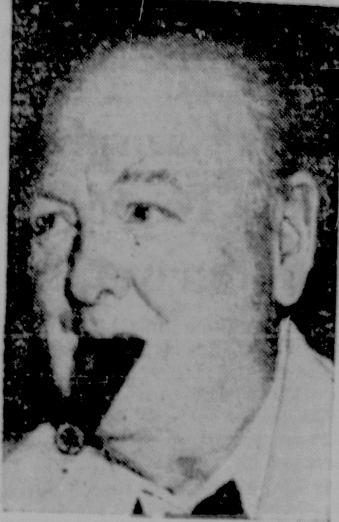

McFarland declined to commit himself on a windup date. He would not say whether he thought it possible to quit before July 7, the date of the Republican national convention—first of the two major party meetings in Chicago.

Winston Churchill

President Truman

Churchill Arrives Today For Talks With Truman On Issues Of Global Nature

Washington, (AP)—British Prime Minister Winston Churchill arrives here today for talks with President Truman which may resolve some key Anglo-American differences and shape critical relations of the two western powers with Russia.

The government, from Mr. Truman down, readied an enthusiastic welcome for the rugged old warrior who at 77 is making this first official visit to Washington since World War Two.

American officials said they are convinced his overall purpose is to try to tighten U. S.-British partnership in world affairs through closer understanding at the top. In this they predicted he would be successful.

However, no one here professed to know precisely what line Churchill would take on specific problems of Europe, Asia and the Middle East. The generalized list of discussion topics he sent to Mr. Truman two weeks ago indicated only that he intends a sweeping review of world problems.

Secretary of State Acheson was asked at a news conference yesterday whether he was "prepared to plunge into a discussion of Churchill's visit?"

He replied that he was not and that the matter of what the President and the Prime Minister would talk about was one for them when they meet today.

Earlier Acheson conferred for 55 minutes with the British ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks. Franks told reporters that they had talked merely about arrangements for the visit. Franks planned to go to New York to meet the Prime Minister and return with him today.

Churchill is due to make port aboard the liner Queen Mary in mid-morning, hold a brief news conference and then come on to Washington on Mr. Truman's plane, the Independence, arriving about noon.

He will begin four days of talks with Mr. Truman and other U. S. officials immediately, with a luncheon at the presidential residence, Blair House.

Later in the day the two men, with a few advisers, will go aboard the presidential yacht Williamsburg for dinner.

Decline In Food Prices Noted In Early December

Washington, (AP)—Food prices at the grocery store dropped 1.2 per cent between Nov. 26 and Dec. 15—the first decrease since October, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported yesterday.

About half the foods included in the cost of living index dropped in price. Largest declines came in eggs, fresh fruits and vegetables, pork and chickens. The Dec. 15 index was estimated at 231.9, based on a 1935-1939 average food price index of 100.

The index is obtained by sampling retail food prices in eight major cities.

It was in the first batch of mail delivered to the Communist for distribution to U.N. prisoners of war. Making the delivery is Lt. J. Harold (left) and an unidentified MP. Dean, former commander of the 24th Infantry Division, was recently declared to be a Red POW.

Turmoil Tries Eighth Time To Tie Line On Enterprise

Agents Seize 500 Suspected Dope Peddlers

Washington, (AP)—Government narcotics agents snapped a giant trap on the drug underworld yesterday and seized more than 500 suspected dope peddlers. Every big city in the nation was involved.

Harry J. Anslinger, narcotics commissioner in the Treasury department, told reporters the mass-mop-up operation by 250 undercover agents in his bureau were to continue throughout the night. He predicted "it will deal a staggering blow to the illicit drug traffic."

The roundup of peddlers, Anslinger said, is by far the biggest ever staged.

A few underworld giants were arrested yesterday, he added, but more top racket bosses will be captured when a grand jury investigation, now under way, is completed within three weeks.

Asked where the jury probe is centered, Anslinger told a news conference, "if we even mentioned the name of the city, some of the men who are talking will be killed."

The commissioner said the raids were aimed at peddlers who have supplied dope for an alarming increase in teen-age addiction, and at veteran offenders who face stiffened penalties under a new narcotics law which makes prison terms mandatory.

Anslinger said the arrested peddlers "are the most dangerous type of criminals, but that the raids were so thoroughly prepared and secretly staged there was no violence."

Each of the arrests, the commissioner said, represents an actual purchase of heroin or marijuana by Treasury agents who have worked undercover in the midst of narcotics rings for more than a month. Anslinger predicted "a very sharp drop" in drug addiction and illicit dope traffic. He said he couldn't estimate mathematically how crippling the blow will be.

The raids started before dawn in San Antonio, Tex., and spread throughout the nation to more than 18 states. Up to 100 alleged peddlers were seized in Texas alone, 50 in New York, 36 in Philadelphia, 34 in Detroit and 30 in Washington.

The commissioner added that a dozen Army enlisted men were arrested at four Army posts—Camp Campbell and Knox in Kentucky and Fort Belvoir and McNair in the Washington area. Narcotics agents put on Army uniforms to catch peddlers among Army troops, Anslinger said.

Well-heeled agents worked three to four months, spending thousands of dollars to buy drugs and establish contact with peddlers. One young agent in Dallas, Tex., posed as an underworld marijuana peddler to collect evidence.

Anslinger said the crackdown is tied to a drive to close down huge European sources for drugs sent to the United States.

He said Italian secret service agents are doing "a magnificent job" in prosecuting drug shippers. Anslinger said Charles (Lucky) Luciano, deported U. S. underworld king, is under investigation in Italy in connection with the crackdown.

Warfront Reverts To Nov. 27 Lines

Seoul, Korea, Saturday, (AP)—Positions along the 145-mile Korean battle front returned Friday to almost the identical line of Nov. 27, when U. N. and Red armistice negotiators agreed to a 30-day provisional ceasefire line.

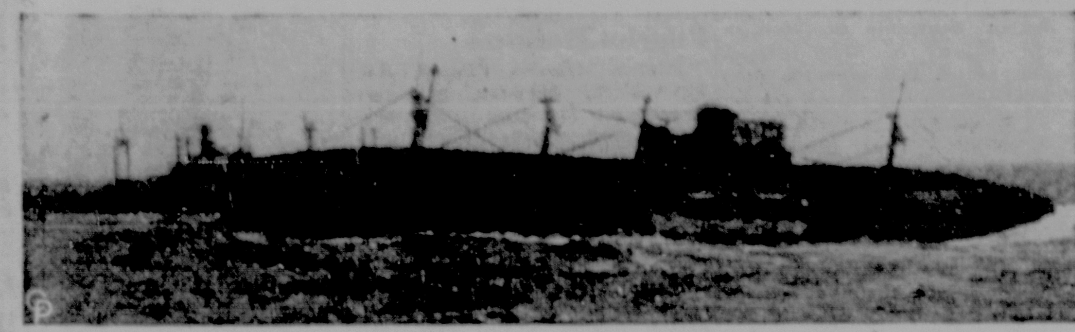

West of Koranpo the Reds still held one hill wrested from U. N. troops Dec. 28. Above Yanggu the Reds held a ridge which the U. N. voluntarily decided to abandon.

The U. S. Eighth Army briefing officer said otherwise the line was essentially the same as the day the negotiators agreed to the provisional buffer zone at Panmunjom.

Billy Wants In

New York, (AP)—Billy Rose went to court yesterday to demand that his estrange wife, Eleanor Holm, open the door of their lavish town house and let him in so he can pick up some of his personal belongings.

The pint-sized theatrical producer has been locked out ever since he and his wife split up over his romance with blonde Joyce Matthews, former wife of Milton Berle.

VOWING TO STAY ABOARD his stricken vessel, the U.S. freighter Flying Enterprise, Capt. Kurt Carlsen, of Woodbridge, N.J., has informed the owners that he will remain with his ship "until I'm towed or sunk." Wallowing in the Atlantic off the English coast, the ship lists at a dangerous angle in the gale-swept seas as another American vessel stands by (background). One of Britain's largest and most powerful tugboats the Turmoil, has reached the distressed freighter.

Half Of Youths Fail To Pass Draft Exams

Harrisburg, (AP)—Half of the youths being examined for armed forces service in Pennsylvania are being rejected for physical and mental reasons, a top Selective Service spokesman said yesterday.

Col. Henry M. Gross, director of the State organization, said the 50 per cent rejection rate has been going on since last August.

He said he was "puzzled" by the increase, particularly since standards for induction were lowered on June 19, last year, when the present draft law went into effect.

"However," he added, "I don't think it's fair to compare these figures with those of World War Two because there was a much wider age group being called then than today's 18 to 26 class."

Gross acknowledged that the present rejection rate is the highest among non-veteran registrants since the war.

U. S. Opposes Red Proposal

Paris, (AP)—The United States vigorously opposed last night a Russian proposal to bring the Korean armistice talks to the U. N. Security Council, fearing that such a move might break up the negotiations now going on in Korea.

U. S. Delegate Benjamin Cohen told a news conference there was no reason to expect greater progress if the armistice negotiations were shifted from the field to a special session of the Security Council, where Russia has a veto.

The proposal was made Thursday in a surprise resolution by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dean Acheson announced the United States would vote against the Russian proposal. He declared adoption of the proposal would be nothing short of disastrous. Acheson accused Vishinsky of holding out bait.

Chidsey Begins Full 21-Year Term On Bench

Philadelphia, (AP)—Justice T. McKean Chidsey was sworn in yesterday to a full 21-year term on the Pennsylvania Supreme court bench.

Chief Justice James B. Brew administered the oath to Chidsey during a quiet ceremony in the court's consultation chambers, and witnessed by other members of the State's highest tribunal except Justice Michael A. Musmanno.

Justice Musmanno, a Democrat, was sworn in as a member of the Supreme court in a Pittsburgh ceremony Thursday. He will join the court on Monday.

Chidsey, an Easton, Republican, was serving as the State's attorney general when he was appointed to the Supreme court in July, 1950, by Gov. James H. Duff. Both Chidsey and Musmanno were elected Supreme court justices last November.

Admiral Allen Dies

Washington, (AP)—Rear Adm. Ezra G. Allen, 66, died yesterday at the Bethesda Naval hospital after a long illness. Allen, a native of Scranton, Pa., was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1907. He was chief of the Navy's budget office from 1941 until his retirement in 1946.

Offer Yugoslavs Aid

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, (AP)—The United States, Britain and France advised Yugoslavia yesterday they will offer her a grant in aid for the next six months of 25 million dollars—less than one-half the amount the Yugoslavs sought.

Allies Refuse To Budge On Supervision Of Armistice

Munsan, Korea, Saturday, (AP)—The Allies refused flatly today to budge another inch on supervision of a Korean armistice because they said that to do so would "make arrangements for our own destruction."

In a formal statement early this morning, the United Nations command declared that the supervision issue "is the heart of the armistice and the key to the future."

An Allied spokesman, Navy Lt. Walter J. Ellis of Pittsburgh, Pa., added: "In item three (agenda number for truce supervision) the point we are trying to make clear to the Communists is this:

"We did not come here to make arrangements for our own destruction. It is taking time to get this across to them, but eventually they will have to understand it and accept it."

Both subcommittees met again at Panmunjom at 11 a. m. today (9 p. m. EST, Friday).

The tightly-deadlocked truce supervision subcommittee met for only an hour and 20 minutes. Then it recessed until tomorrow. There was no immediate indication whether it had made progress.

No agreement was reached Friday on either the issue of truce supervision or exchange of prisoners. The Reds presented seven objections to the new Allied six-point proposal on prisoner exchange.

Kefauver Hopes To Reveal Plans About February 1

Washington, (AP)—Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said yesterday he is interested in the presidency, is "appraising" the situation and intends to announce his plans about February.

In Washington, backers of the senator said a Kefauver-for-president club will be incorporated promptly and will try to persuade him to seek the presidency.

Kefauver, in New York for a speaking engagement, said "I'm just appraising the matter (of the presidency) and I'll make my announcement about the first of February." He also indicated he was interested in the vice presidency.

Harold E. Stassen, meanwhile, said that if he is elected president he will make good on his promise to fire "200,000 loafers" from the government payroll. Stassen is an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination.

Mink Farmers Complain

Washington, (AP)—The nation's mink farmers complained yesterday that all the stories about mink coats acquired by Washington political figures have placed an "unjust stigma" on their product and hurt business.

Tug Crewman Joins Carlsen Aboard Ship

London, Saturday, (AP)—The British tug Turmoil started her eighth attempt early today to take in two the hurricane-cracked Flying Enterprise, which has been wallowing in Atlantic swells for a week 300 miles off the southern tip of England.

Capt. Kurt Carlsen, hero of a lone six-day battle against the elements, had a new shipmate in Kenneth Roger Dancy 27, mate of the tug, for the gruelling task of wrestling a towline aboard.

This time the prospects are "excellent," said the U.S. destroyer John W. Weeks in a radio report to U.S. Navy headquarters in London.

At midnight, the Weeks reported, the sea was "steadily improving," with wind and waves moderating. The sky was clearing and the barometer rising.

Seven times Friday the turmoil tried and failed to get a hawser made fast to the million-dollar ship she is assigned to save. Small heaving lines, the ropes used to pull in the far bigger towlines, were fired across to Carlsen, but the lines snapped, once when a hawser was just two feet from the towing bit.

The destroyer Weeks, which has been standing by the crippled ship since early Wednesday, radioed Navy headquarters here early today that no lines yet connected the Turmoil with the freighter.

A message timed at 12:32 a.m. (7:32 p.m. EST Friday) and received by headquarters at 4 a.m. gave these details:

"Due to increasing wind and sea, efforts to rig towing gear were suspended during the early afternoon Jan. 4 to await more favorable weather."

"Numerous parting of lines in the salvage operation made waiting mandatory, else equipment could have been expended before the rescue could be accomplished."

"Carlsen now has the company and assistance of the mate of the tug Turmoil, able to board the Enterprise Friday afternoon. With favorable weather, his presence will materially assist the salvage."

"Carlsen is in good spirits and cheerfully confident of the outcome. His courage, perseverance and devotion to his ship have aroused the admiration of all on the Weeks."

"The latest development: the weather at sea is steadily improving, the wind and sea are moderating, the sky is clearing, the barometer is rising."

"The situation at 2345 GMT (6:45 p.m. EST) was such that the rigging of tow gear was recommended."

"With the aid of the mate, Carlsen's prospects are excellent."

"The Weeks is running low on fuel and must depart for Plymouth by 0900 GMT (4 a.m. EST) this morning."

The Turmoil's captain, Dan Parker, decided in the night that dawn would bring better weather and a better chance to take up the tow. The owners of the tug here said Parker probably was rigging up breeches buoy in an attempt to get more sailors from his 31-man crew aboard the Flying Enterprise.

Experts said 10 or 12 fresh men could be used to advantage on the sharply sloping deck of the freighter.

Dancy clambered over the taffrail of the wallowing ship in heavy seas late Friday.

He was the first man to be seen aboard by Captain Carlsen since the captain ordered his crew of 40 and 10 passengers to abandon the hull-cracked ship in a hurricane seven days ago.

Captain Parker said he is "confident I can get a tow rigged if we get a break in the weather" now that there are two men instead of one aboard the stricken ship.

Radio messages from the tug and the Weeks said the ship had dropped a little more to her side from a 60-degree list and seas were breaking over the exposed main deck and deckhouses. But she still was buoyant and possibly can be towed to Falmouth harbor, 300 miles to the east.

Robert O. Schell To Direct County Red Cross Campaign

Fund Drive To Start March First

Robert O. Schell, manager of the Shawnee Press, will head the 1952 American Red Cross fund campaign in Monroe county. It was announced last night at the meeting of the executive board of the local chapter held at Red Cross headquarters.

The board unanimously approved the nomination, made by George T. Robinson, chapter chairman.

Mr. Schell, who will succeed William Palmer who served as fund campaign chairman for the past two years, came to this community as manager of the Shawnee Press about three years ago.

Before being connected with the Waring Enterprises, he was manager of an F. W. Woolworth store in metropolitan New York.

Since coming here, he has taken an active part in community affairs. He is county director of the family welfare division of the Civil Defense program in the county, and is scoutmaster of a Boy Scout troop. He is a member of the local Kiwanis club.

He and his wife and their two children live at 92 Bridge St., in Pocono Park.

Although the local quota has not yet been set, the National Red Cross has announced an "absolute minimum" goal of $85,000,000 to carry on its greatly expanded services to the armed forces, its blood program, its disaster services and its other activities. E. Roland Harriman, Red Cross president, announced.

"The campaign will be an appeal to all Americans to join in answering the plea of suffering humanity—of human beings in need or distress across the street or across the nation," Mr. Harriman said. The theme will be "Answer The Call."

"The Red Cross is an organization made up of the people themselves," Mr. Harriman stated. "When it acts anywhere it is the people acting in behalf of those in need—doing what each individual would do if he were at the scene of disaster or at a soldier's side in Korea. And it is the people who make Red Cross work possible through their volunteer efforts and contributions."

The fund campaign will be held March 1 to 31 with John S. Sinclair of New York City, president of the National Industrial Conference board, as national chairman. The goal was set by the Red Cross Board of Governors after exhaustive study of the agency's program.

"At no time other than in the midst of a world wide war has there been greater or more compelling human need for the people to meet through their Red Cross," Mr. Harriman stated. "For our armed forces alone, it has been necessary to double the Red Cross field staff serving military installations. Cases handled by our personnel at camps and hospitals increased 50 percent last year over the year before and our armed forces continue to grow."

"The Red Cross Blood program also will continue to meet emergency needs," Mr. Harriman said. During the last year the American people through the Red Cross provided more than a half million pints of blood for wounded fighting men and 1,228,500 pints for sick and injured civilians. The organization is now operating 43 regional blood centers and 11 defense centers.

"In disaster relief the Red Cross spent $13,768,000 to help victims of the midwestern floods of last summer," Mr. Harriman stated. "While approximately $5,000,000 was received through a special disaster appeal, the Red Cross had to spend an additional $8,768,000 from its funds available for national emergencies."

"The ability of the organization to meet another emergency comparable to the devastating Kansas floods and to carry on its other vital programs will depend on the public's response to the March 1952 fund appeal," Mr. Harriman said.

"Therefore, the $85,000,000 goal must not merely be reached but generously over-subscribed. To carry out this work of mercy the Red Cross must have the funds to meet the needs of our men and women in uniform, of disaster victims, and of the sick and wounded who must have blood. Filling these needs is worthy of our maximum efforts and of the full participation and generosity of our people."

Holding Tax Rate To 10 Mills Cited As Accomplishment Of County Board

Holding the Monroe county tax rate at ten mills "in spite of increased costs in payrolls, materials and other operating expenses," was cited yesterday by Granville Shiffer, chairman of the board of county commissioners, as one of the major achievements of the board during the past four years.

Mr. Shiffer, who is also Democratic county chairman, will be sworn in office for his second term as commissioner Monday when annual re-organization meeting is held. He has been chairman of the board for the past four years.

Amzi F. Altomose, now sheriff, and W. Adolph Rake, East Stroudsburg contractor, both Republicans, will be sworn in as county commissioners on Monday. It will be the first time in county history the board has had a GOP majority. Both of these men have indicated they will have a statement of policy after they take office.

Speaking for the entire board, which in the past four years included Willard L. Quick, Stroudsburg restaurant operator and Harry D. Kresge, East Stroudsburg drug store owner, both of whom were defeated, Mr. Shiffer said:

"In these days of inflated prices and terrific competition for the tax dollars paid by the taxpayers, I personally feel proud and I am sure Mr. Quick and Mr.

Granville Shiffer

whom were defeated, Mr. Shiffer said:

"In these days of inflated prices and terrific competition for the tax dollars paid by the taxpayers, I personally feel proud and I am sure Mr. Quick and Mr.

Kresge are proud of the fact we operated the county business without increasing the tax rate."

Said Mr. Shiffer: "We reduced the bonded indebtedness of the county by $78,000 through retirement of road bonds. Some $40,000 of this amount was paid off before maturity, thus creating an interest saving of almost $5,000 to taxpayers."

"The Monroe County home and its farm were modernized and placed on a high plane of efficiency by installation of modern methods and machinery," the board chairman said.

Claiming a record for one-term distribution of county-aid funds to townships and boroughs for road and street improvement purposes, Mr. Shiffer said:

"Our county aid program gave townships and boroughs a total of $212,734.22 to townships and boroughs for these improvements — by far the largest appropriation for good roads purposes in any one term in the history of the county."

Looking ahead to his new term as county commissioner which he will assume Monday with Mr.

Altomose and Mr. Rake, Shiffer said he "will endeavor to use the experience which I have obtained to work for the best interests of all the people of the county."

He set forth a seven-point program which he said he will promote. They follow:

See that property assessments are, as near as possible, placed on equal basis.

To levy only such taxes as are absolutely necessary for the proper administration of the office.

To work for an equal distribution of Liquid Fuels Tax in various districts of Monroe county.

Work for maintenance of efficient and courteous county employees.

Promote proper repairs and maintenance of county buildings and bridges.

Maintain appropriations of county monies to such charities and charitable institutions which render the most good to the greatest number of people and which can be made under the law.

Generally seek out conduct of the office of county commissioner in an honest and efficient manner.

Workers Give 866 Hours Of Free Service

Volunteers in the Monroe County chapter of the American Red Cross gave a total of more than 866 hours of volunteer services during December, it was announced at the chapter meeting held last night.

The chapter has also been active in many other fields, the reports indicated.

George T. Robinson, chapter chairman presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Raymond Michener gave the treasurer's report.

The home service case load remains heavy as the chapter is called upon to help with veterans, men in active service and their dependents. There were 21 cases during the month including 16 new cases and 15 calls given assistance but not counted as cases. Of the 21 cases, 19 were men in active service or their dependents.

In their behalf 27 telegrams were sent and 10 long distance telephone calls were made. There were 15 home visits and 98 office interviews.

Two transient veterans were assisted with meal tickets and eight families referred to the used clothing room. Two volunteers in the motor corps assisted with 20 hours in three trips to Wilkes-Barre and Allentown.

Mrs. Clifford Heller gave the home service report, and Mrs. Ida B. Kunkle, executive secretary, explained some of the situations for which the Red Cross assumes responsibility until papers can be cleared and allotments received.

LeRoy Mikels, chairman of the Red Cross Blood Donor program, announced the results of the pre-Christmas bloodmobile visit at the VFW home when 230 actual donors visited the center. Bad weather made it impossible for the rest of the promised 300 to get to the center. However, many of these are expected to volunteer for the next visit of the bloodmobile on January 23 at the Elks club from 10 to 4. Mr. Mikels announced.

report from Mrs. Eugene Martin chairman of home nursing showed that three home nursing courses are to be started next month, including one at the Salvation Army headquarters.

Mrs. LeRoy J. Koehler, chairman of Volunteer Services, reported that during the month two members of the administration service had given 2 hours of service; 35 Gray Ladies had given more than 468 hours; 14 members of the canteen service had given 106 plus hours; and the motor service enlisted 3 volunteers for 21 and a quarter hours in 63 trips totaling 365 miles.

Nurses aides, 11 of them, gave 181 plus hours; six staff aides gave 33 hours and nine registered nurses gave 54 plus hours.

Broken down into specific services: the blood bank took 33 volunteers almost 250 hours; the hospital, gray ladies and nurses aides more than 605 hours and chapter and administration service 11 hours.

The absence of the pastor who was ill, Mrs. Weller conducted the business sessions of both boards. Miss Clarissa Blakeslee of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. A. T. Blakeslee Sr.

A number of ladies will meet next Wednesday to quilt for Mr. Oliver Cobbleigh at his home.

A number of young folks were skating on Meadow Brook pond this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Keenapple and son, Ricky of White Haven were New Year guests of Mrs. Keenapple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Getz.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blakeslee Jr. and son, David spent the weekend with Mrs. Blakeslee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hales of Long Island.

The hostess served refreshments to the following: Mrs. A. T. Blakeslee Sr., A. T. Blakeslee Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keiper, Mrs. Isaac Henning, Mrs. Peter Hawk, Mrs. Lane Weller and Mrs. Grace Bush. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Blakeslee Sr.

Canadensis Inventor Patents Method For Using Sun Energy

A U.S. letters patent was recently granted to Leon T. Wilson, a consulting engineer, of Canadensis, on methods and systems for utilizing solar energy.

Mr. Wilson anticipates that his invention will extend the usefulness of solar heat collectors to the colder latitudes and ultimately to conserve fuel resources to a considerable degree.

The electric power industry, he pointed out, has long sought a method which would enable that industry to enter in the heating field on a competitive basis with common fuels such as coal, oil and gas. It is said that Mr. Wilson's system is expected to provide a solution to the problem.

Mr. Wilson's system, the inventor said, will eliminate the need for a chimney and is expected to be very economical in operating costs.

Directors Approve Petitions For Additions To Schools

The Monroe County Board of School Directors held a regular meeting this week with four of its five members in attendance.

Those present were T. B. Courtright, Haiden Murphy, Harry J. Drennan and Adam O. Smith.

The board took action in two cases involving petitions for additional units for small high schools. The petitions were presented by Superintendent of County Schools John C. Litts for Conbaugh and Barrett Townships. The petitions were approved and forwarded to Harrisburg for further action.

Similar petitions from Tobyhanna and Folk township had been previously approved.

A fiststep in parliamentary procedure sent Hamilton township's request for action on proposed sites for that township's consolidated school building back to township authorities.

County school board members pointed out that the local (or township) school officials must first decide upon one of the sites which it considers desirable, then submit the proposed site to the county board. Hamilton officials had submitted a series of four sites to the board for its consideration and recommendation.

Superintendent Litts announced April 25 as the second in a series of two annual "teachers' meetings" during which Monroe county schools are closed and teachers are asked to visit either schools outside the county or the University of Pennsylvania.

The board was also notified that October 7 and 8 have been set as dates for this year's annual State School Directors Convention in Harrisburg.

Superintendent Litts and Assistant Superintendent Walter Sebring announced last night that three Monroe county high schools have entered the 1952 forensic and music contest, an annual affair. Four other high schools have announced their intentions of entering the contest this year, bringing a total of at least seven entrants in this year's competition from the county.

The contest will be held March 6 and 7 this year. Further details will be announced by the superintendent's office prior to the opening of the contest.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

All right, it snowed again last night, but you can't fool me—winter is ka-poot—the Poplar Valley WSCS has already appointed the committee for its strawberry festival.

Oh it's heartwarming news to ponder upon and so are the continuing engagements, though if you'll notice they're gradually being superseded by the club news as the officers and members catch their breath after the holiday recess.

And at the rate the announcements were coming in last night, their second wind seems to give them even more energy than their first. Card parties, international relations, cake walks and board meetings—good old pot pourri of winter, it sounds like again.

But speaking of winter—those statistics on volunteer hours given at the Red Cross meeting last night can't begin to indicate the real effort behind that figure.

Just take Mrs. Roulette's motor corps for instance—except you probably wouldn't have taken that trip in that weather to bring a hospital patient home for the holidays with his family—nor yet over the icy roads to Allentown State hospital.

Or maybe you would—maybe the women they were talking about who not only serve as Gray Ladies at the hospital, but on their days off from that serve as nurses aides, too. And if you are, you're wonderful.

And the winter programs sound wonderful, too. But I still keep thinking back to the promise of that strawberry festival.

Snapshots! You collect them wherever you go, whether you're accompanied by a neat camera from Wyckoff's stationery department, or are just using your eyes for a lens and your mind for a film. Sometimes you can fill an entire album by something as routine as a quick walk through the store.

Here are a few of the snapshots collected yesterday: Selma Rustler, head of personnel, seated in the stock control room studying two enormous placards on which she was outlining her plans for inventory the latter part of this month. . . . Arthur Widner, head of advertising, stopping in the Children's department, to talk with two little girls who remembered him from the Doll party. . . . John Mitchell heading toward the Wyckoff Shopper's desk with two boxes containing bedroom slippers to be exchanged for larger sizes. . . . Maude Walton smiling expectantly as she explored a large box filled with tissue paper, and drew out a little black hat with a crown of blazing gold. . . . Edna Harmon and Betty LaBarre, heads together, joining in a chorus of happy exclamations over a piece of jewelry in their department. . . . Amy Ellenberger sorting ends of beautiful satin, grosgrain and velvet ribbons for the rummage sale to be held next week, only to have it purchased in a twinkling by a customer passing by. . . . Edna Brockman, head of Wyckoff's Travel Bureau, leaning back in her chair for a brief minute of relaxation after three hours of being continuously busy with one client after another. . . .

Snapshots are such fun! Gloria Burnett in a blouse of gold and Kittle Miller with a new hairdo, having coffee at the fountain and jollying Mabel Huffman, Beulah Felencner, Mary Werkheiser, and Olive London, those genial girls who never get ruffled even when every stool is full and people waiting. . . . Grace Grace busy at her filing. . . . Thelma Gordon, racing from one customer to another in an infant's department that suddenly was the busiest spot in the store, and Blanche Mackey returning from an Electrical Appliance demonstration that resulted in a nice sale. Happy day!

White House Hopefuls Start Collecting States With No Changes In Ground Rules

By John Semberow
Central Press Correspondent

Washington — The 1952 presidential election season opens officially in January with the same old ground rules, despite all the clamor after the 1948 balloting for a modification of the electoral college system.

Wisconsin will provide the kick-off with its new Jan. 15 deadline for candidates to file in its preferential primary. Fifteen other states also provide trial heats for White House aspirants before the national political conventions.

The amendment offered by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (R), Massachusetts, to substitute a system geared more closely with the total popular vote than the electoral college, which the founding fathers adopted in a pious hope to place the choice of President in the hands of a selected group of well-qualified citizens, appears dead as a do.

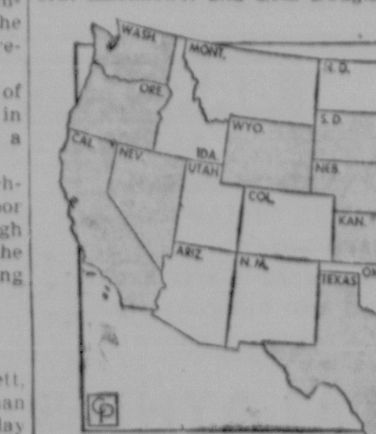

Most of the steam went out of it when analyses showed that it would not have changed more than two elections in the last hundred years—Samuel J. Tilden would have won over Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876 and Gen. Hancock over Gen. James A. Garfield in 1880—although it would have landed William Jennings Bryan in a virtual tie with William McKinley and precipitated Lincoln's 1860 election into Congress for final determination.

Obviously happy over not having to master a new set of rules, the leaders of the candidacies already under way are busily engaged in the old familiar game of collecting states for their hopefuls.

The only new thing that has been added since 1948 is the Twenty-Second Amendment to the United States Constitution, which bars third term bids but not apply to the incumbent Harry S. Truman.

Wisconsin, where Wendell Willkie stubbed his toe in 1944, may have no takers for its preferential primary. It is too early for any of the open aspirants to risk a setback, and since the candidate must give his permission, the field may be bare.

And Oregon's primary sweepstakes in March may provide a free-for-all, since candidates' names may be entered without their permission. Supporters of Senators Robert A. Taft (R), Ohio, and Estes Kefauver (D), Tennessee; President Truman and General Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas Taft-Eisenhower outcome may depend on 16 states, shown shaded here.

MacArthur all have indicated they may file.

Lending a spot of color to the proceedings is Stuart Hamblen, cowboy singer-evangelist of Arcadia, Cal., who is the first official standard-bearer on deck. The Prohibition party put him in the race at its convention held in November in Indianapolis.

The fight for the GOP nomination already shapes up as a four-way battle. Senator Taft is rapidly building on his core strength in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and his headquarters here refuses to concede any state at this point.

Although Eisenhower remains enigmatic, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Senator James Duff of Pennsylvania are busily marshalling support to augment the formidable chunk of 166 convention votes they hope to deliver.

Kansas, the general's home state, is the chief trigger for the Eisenhower craft at the moment.

If it is Taft vs. Eisenhower, the dopesters now figure that the outcome may turn on 16 key states: Alabama, California, Georgia, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, Washington, West Virginia, Wyoming and Wisconsin.

Adding their share of complications are the two favorite sons already in the field — Gov. Earl Warren of California and the former Minnesota governor, President Harold E. Stassen of the University of Pennsylvania, by their own announcements, and Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey, who is boomed by his followers as a logical compromise if a deadlock develops.

Trouble brews in the Democratic camp. Gov. James E. Byrnes of South Carolina, a former Truman intimate, and Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia, are keeping the Dixiecrats alive and kicking.

Senator Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota has launched an attempted GOP conservative-south coalition, and at Memphis a nonpartisan committee for victory has been organized by business and civic leaders, led by Roane Caring, former national commander of the American Legion.

Consequently, it continues to be a jigsaw puzzle of states, and the 60,000,000 of an eligible 97,000,000 voters who are expected to vote are beginning to make up their minds.

Mary Hendricks Readjusting Life To Overcome Ravages Left By Attack Of Dread Poliomyelitis

Normality is the most striking thing about Mary Hendricks of East Stroudsburg. It is not a normality of body. The 23-year-old girl has battled polio for more than a year. She cannot rise from her wheelchair. She would fall on her face if she tried to take a step.

It is a normality of attitude and view-point, toward herself and the world to which she must adapt her altered body.

In the modest home at 58 Lenox Ave. it would be hard to tell—without the visible evidence—how Mary Hendricks is in any way different from any girl of her age and background.

There is no false determined gaiety about her, no frenetic feeling of "I'll show 'em!" She shows no gloom, nor does she dip—let alone plunge—into a well of self-pity. No bitterness is reflected from her lively brown eyes, no rancor against fate, no visible envy of those still whole in body.

The crux of her problem, as it is for every polio victim who survives the disease, is "where do I go from here?"

She is finding out by trial, error and experimentation. At the same time medical science is trying to lead her on the long road toward physical normalcy.

"I'd like to work," she muses, "but I don't see how I could get to and from work." There is no car in the Hendricks household.

"Maybe by the time I'm ready to go to work I won't have to be carried. Maybe I'll be able to walk by then."

A generation ago such a hope would have been futile.

It no longer is, because of the advances in knowledge and treatment of the disease. A vast amount has been done at the National Polio Foundation. Mary Hendricks has seen the results there. She knows her hope is legitimate.

At home she reads, embroiders, helps to wipe the dishes after meals. Another pleasant chore over the holidays was answering the scores of letters from friends, sending out more than 100 Christmas cards.

Sooner or later Mary Hendricks will chop out a productive munity. She hasn't yet found the answer of where and how. Her formal education was not extensive—she quit school in Tannersville in the tenth grade—but polio developed mental qualities in her that school never could have done.

"I may try some typing. That's about all I can do right now . . ." she said before Christmas. Today she has the typewriter—a Christmas present from genuinely admiring friends.

And medical science is not yet finished with Mary Hendricks.

At present a metal contrivance holds her right thumb and first finger apart. In four or six months she will return to the foundation in Warm Springs. Surgeons will cut muscles from her right middle and ring fingers, transplant them to the lifeless thumb and index finger.

It will be a few more steps back to physical normality. It is always difficult to go uphill. But as Mary Hendricks knows, the more anyone struggles uphill the closer he comes to the summit.

Part-Time Medico Is World's Most Diligent Word Detective

By Bebe C. Clarke
Central Press Correspondent

Baltimore, Md. — This town, known for its sea food, the John Hopkins medical empire, and aging H. L. Mencken, is gradually shaping up as the Scotland Yard of a world which concerns itself with words. For Baltimore is the home and habitat of the world's most diligent word lover — grammarian Dr. J. E. Schmidt, part-time physician and full-time word detective.

When Dr. Schmidt's phone rings in the wee hours of the morning, there is a better than even chance that he will not have to go out into the cold with his little black bag.

More likely the call will be from a distressed newspaperman suffering from "vocabulary bends," because the word which describes a person who continually relapses into crime is on the tip of his tongue, but refuses to come off.

Dr. Schmidt is expert in pushing such words off the tongue by suggesting the word recidivist, which means just that. Or the concept may be thumb-sucking. "Pollicisuctus," says Dr. Schmidt affably.

Baltimore's Sherlock Holmes of the vocabulary world began his word sleuthing about 20 years ago, when he decided to do something about these fugitive words.

"Doing something" meant putting down each desirable word on a filing card, entering the meaning of the word ahead of the word, and arranging all such cards alphabetically on the basis of the meaning—not the words.

This was the antidote for slippery words that left haunting memories behind them. The concept or meaning could be looked up in the alphabetized list and the word thus re-discovered.

"If you find the best peaches or the best strawberries near the top of the basket, you may be sure it was no accident. However, what is the word for putting the best specimens near the top of the pile? That's easy to find out in Dr. Schmidt's file. You will find it by looking under "Putting—Best specimens on the top" or under "Specimens—Putting best on the top."

In any event, the word is deacon. From the modest beginning which concerned itself with a few thousand eloping words, the project grew into the Augean task of rewriting the whole dictionary along the same plan—meanings first.

For it soon became apparent that this pattern of lexicography was good not only for recouping forgotten words but also for finding unknown words on the basis of what one wishes to say. The fulfillment of this assignment consumed 20 years of assiduous labor.

Having meanings of words arranged alphabetically is equivalent to having thoughts, ideas, and concepts arranged alphabetically, for in the final analysis words are symbols of thought expression, says Dr. Schmidt. For instance: The concept of one excessively jealous of his country's honor and power or suffused with an exaggerated sense of national glory can be summarized with one word—provided you know the right word.

While you can find the meaning behind an unknown word by consulting the conventional dictionary, you have no way of finding a word behind a given meaning—unless, of course, you have access to Dr. Schmidt's files. This is the reason Dr. Schmidt wields the scepter of supreme word detective and is consultant to writers, editors and other illuminati with enviable vocabulary powers.

Dr. Schmidt's enthusiasm about words and his preoccupation with them led to his inevitable acquisition of a colossal active vocabulary which appears to be in the neighborhood of 150,000 words. If you can go by latest vocabulary tests.

Being on speaking terms with such a bulging cache of words means that the files have to be consulted only on occasion, a fact appreciated by the word-harassed doctor in cases of nocturnal emergencies.

The word sleuth of Baltimore's Brighton street can tell you with or without consulting his files that eisegesis means the faulty interpretation of a text, that something

Dr. Schmidt at his files.

Newsprint Allocation Idea Doomed

Washington (AP) — The 28-nation international materials conference apparently has abandoned plans for international allocation of newsprint.

A conference announcement said yesterday the 14-country committee which has been studying the problem hopes to be able to announce shortly "the result of its current discussions."

Informed officials added, however, that the committee has decided against any formal long-range allocation scheme for newsprint. Instead, they said, a voluntary plan for boosting production while keeping newsprint sale and distribution in private channels probably would be announced.

Last Summer the conference set August 15 as a tentative deadline for a long-range allocation plan. Opposition developed within the committee, however, and this deadline passed with no action and no explanation.

Some representatives reportedly objected that newsprint actually was not scarce enough for allocation.

Delaware House License Suspended

The license of Ralph DeVivo, operator of the Delaware House, Portland, has been suspended by the State Liquor Control Board at Harrisburg, the Associated Press said yesterday.

The board announced DeVivo's license was suspended for sales of malt beverages in excess of 144 fluid ounces for consumption off the premises.

perceptible only to the intellect is a noun, and that chantage is the extortion of money by threats of exposure. Also, did you know that a person who is abnormally fond of work is an ergonomiac, that a Gallicism is a French idiom used in another language, that adulation of women is gynoclatry and that hippophile is a person who loves horses?

Maybe you don't know it but the quality of being such as it is, is haecceity, a sesquipedalian is a very long word, a person who likes to brose around cemeteries is a koimeterionophilist, and novercal refers to a stepmother.

Dr. Schmidt will charge you for relieving your tummy ache, but he will relieve your vocabulary distress, by giving you a word for your thought, free of charge—believe it or not!

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

The drain on the manpower in Monroe county is evident among the playing personnel of the various "out of school" basketball teams, but according to reports reaching this corner, there is even more of a lack of credited PIAA court officials, at least in the Stroudsburg chapter. Officials who had counted on working very little this season are on the verge of being pressed into service almost nightly to fill commitments for the various games being held. There is plenty of room in the local chapter for certified PIAA officials.

Wilkes College, which last month made 24 of 24 foul shots in a game against East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, is third among the free throw percentage leaders in the small college ranks. Wilkes has made 93 of 133 charity tosses for a percentage of 69.9, trailing Youngstown, O., and Wheaton, Ill., in that department. Youngstown leads the pack with a percentage of 73.2, while Wheaton is second with a 70.5 mark. However, that perfect 24 for 24 performance must be the best single game showing of the present campaign—if not for all time.

The fine condition of the University of Maryland football team, which trounced Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl last Tuesday, 28-13, is due greatly to the work of Alfred J. "Duke" Wyrw, head trainer for the Terps. Wyrw was a member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Scholastic Coaches Association clinic faculty in 1949. The clinic is held annually at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Wyrw is regarded as one of the best trainers in the business by many of the experts.

Clarence "Buck" Pipher, who recently announced his engagement, was both a football and basketball star at Stroudsburg High school prior to his graduation in 1948. Pipher was also a standout griddier at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. A full schedule of basketball is planned for the Monroe County YMCA next week, as no less than four circuits provide the action, with Friday being listed as the only open date.

The promotion of Danny Carnevale to the position of Schenectady, class "A" Eastern league, manager, came as a surprise to nobody, as many thought the winning field general might be named pilot of the Baltimore entry in the International league this year. Carnevale managed Carbondale in 1949; Bradford, Poughkeepsie in 1950; and Wilmington, Inter-State league, 1951. Dan, who has been popular and unpopular by turns during his diamond career, has made a habit of winning the regular season or playoff titles, or both, at each stop on his managerial journey. Carnevale also played shortstop for the Scranton Miners prior to World War Two.

Tony Safara and Dick Phillips, both volunteers for service with the Marine Corps recently, are former basketball stars at Greene-Dreher High school. Safara also attended two baseball schools, one conducted by the Brooklyn Dodgers in Hazleton, and the other by the Phillies at Gordon Giffels field. Safara also performed for the Newfoundland Bears, when that team was a member of the Wayne County League. Harold Wertheimer, who's engagement has been announced, is a former court and diamond performer at Pocono High school.

Stan Kupinski, former basketball and baseball star at Tobyhanna Township High, looked like a million bucks in his Naval Academy uniform while home for the holidays. Kupinski is a member of the starting piebce cage machine at the academy this year. John Kerz, who applied for his marriage license on Thursday, is a former basketball and baseball player at Barrett High, when Joe Murray held down the head coaching berth, prior to his return to active duty with the Marines.

Jack Kist and Dick Forster, football and basketball coach respectively at East Stroudsburg High school, gave the officiating setup at Tobyhanna an East Stroudsburg flavor on Thursday, when they combined to work the Coolbaugh-Milford clash, which resulted in Coolbaugh's second straight win and fourth in seven starts this season. Harry Schaeffer's first image is a bow, to be known as Johnny, born on Wednesday, December 19, 1949, a former pitcher with the Stroudsburg Poconos and a graduate of ESSTC, is scheduled to go south with the Yankees this spring.

Monroe County League entries get down to serious work next Friday, when the rural circuit opens its doors for the 1952 campaign. TTHS will be attempting to land its third straight title. Skating conditions vary throughout the area, but if the weatherman is right, there's still plenty of winter weather, with an abundance of snow in store for the resorts of the Pocono Mountains. Skiing and basketball will be the top sports in this and virtually every other area for the remainder of the winter.

Parkland Rolls Over East Stroudsburg, 77-37

Cavaliers Blow First Period Edge

Allentown — Ray Steele scored 14 of East Stroudsburg's 16 points in the first period, but the lanky center was unable to stand the pace during the remainder of the contest and Parkland went on to register a 77-37 Lehigh-Northampton league victory before a fair sized crowd at the Little Palestra.

Parkland, an annual power in the circuit, also registered a victory in the junior varsity game, 49-29, over the East Stroudsburg yearlings.

East Stroudsburg was in the game only during the first eight minutes, when the Cavaliers rushed off to a 16-8 advantage in the opening session.

However, Parkland found the range in the second stanza, and dominated the game the remainder of the distance. The Parkland contingent held a 23-6 advantage during the second stanza to lead at halftime, 31-22.

Similar Story

The acting host wrote a similar story during the second half, running up a 24-9 edge in the third period and ran wild in the final round, 22-6. Parkland entered the last period on the long end of a 55-31 count.

Steele was the big gun in a losing cause, running up 16 points on six doubleheaders and four shots from the charity line.

Five of the Parkland crew scored in the double figures, as the acting host won by 40 points.

East Stroudsburg made good on 13 of 31 attempts from the foul line, while Parkland finished second best in this department, making only seven of 21 charity tosses. The Cavaliers return to the Lehigh-Northampton league wars on Tuesday, when the charges of Coach Dick Forster tangle with Wilson Borough, on the latter's home court.

Dawson To Meet Pitt Council

Pittsburgh (AP) — Lowell "Red" Dawson, backfield coach of the Michigan State Spartans, will huddle with the University of Michigan's athletic committee again today in his hunt for a new grid mentor.

It will be a return engagement for Dawson. He conferred with Pitt's sport bosses last July after Len Casanova resigned as coach.

First
A school spokesman said yesterday Dawson was the first and only coach contacted by Pitt at that time. He added that the Spartan mentor indicated he was under a moral obligation to stay at Michigan State.

Pitt already has interviewed seven other coaches from a list of 80 applicants.

Vejar Continues March to Top By Gaining Nod Over Bolanos

New York (AP) — Chico Vejar, a 29-year-old college freshman on the way up, caught Enrique Bolanos on the way down last night to pound out a unanimous ten-round decision over the Pasadena veteran at Madison Square Garden. Vejar weighed 146½, Bolanos 143, the heaviest of his career.

Although the cagey Californian who fought three times for the lightweight title, showed a brilliant job and boistered Chico in flurries of action, it was the old story of a youth triumph.

Coolbaugh Turns Jets Into Victim

Tobyhanna — Coolbaugh High captured its third favorable verdict in as many days last night and turned the Pocono Jets into its sixth victim of the campaign, by a 41-20 score. The Coolbaugh charges of Coach Don Wismer have dropped three decisions this season.

Coolbaugh's junior varsity also won the preliminary game over a contingent from Pocono Summit, 39-15.

The green and white clad Coolbaugh five held the upper hand from start to finish in the main event, leading 9-5 at the end of the first quarter and 19-11 at the halfway mark.

Deciding Factor

It was slightly different in the third quarter, when the Jets flashed to an 8-7 edge, only to have the high school quintet run wild during the final stanza, scoring 15 points while holding the Jets to a single foul conversion.

Coolbaugh made good on nine of 15 attempts from the foul line, while the Jets came through on six of 19 tosses from the same distance.

Harry Dailey and Andy Sapp, with 15 and seven counters respectively, led the Coolbaugh attack, while Dayton Frantz and Lynn Wertheimer, each with seven markers, were the big guns in a losing cause.

Coolbaugh remains idle now until next Friday, when the Wismermen open the Monroe County League flag race at Barrett.

Four Players Receive Raises

Washington (AP) — Salary increases for four big league baseball players have been approved by the Salary Stabilization board.

Those involved are Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals, Del Ennis of the Phillies, Larry Janzen of the New York Giants and Andy Pafko of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

No action

No action has been taken by the board yet on a proposed increase for Stan Musial, star outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals. The board has been asked to approve a boost in his pay from $50,000 to $85,000.

Ennis got $20,000 in 1950; Stanky got $22,500 in 1950 and $30,000 in 1951. Janzen got $25,000 in 1950 and asked $30,000 in 1951, while Pafko got $23,000 with the Chicago Cubs in 1950 and was signed up by the Dodgers in 1951 at between $28,000 and $29,000.

The salary board did not disclose the amount of increases it had approved.

St. Francis Stops Fairfield

Bridgeport, Conn. (AP) — A tall rangy St. Francis College basketball team from Lioletto, Pa., was in complete control throughout last night in walloping Fairfield University 74-54 at the State Armory here.

Control Boards

With their teammates controlling both backboards, Maurice Stokes, Ed Dugan and Johnny Clancy hit from all parts of the floor. Stokes sparked the visitors with 13, while Duga and Clancy had 11 each.

Fimbreis Stops Rival

West Palm Beach, Fla. (AP) — Alex Fimbreis, 123, Phoenix, Ariz., knocked out Chili Cantero, 127, Havana last night in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round main event at the auditorium here.

The crowd of 4,262 that paid $14,290 got a kick out of the game comeback by Bolanos, a 27-year-oldster, in the last half of the eighth.

Ducking and bobbing under Vejar's wild right hand punches, he had the New Englander huffing and puffing in the last round. His inside chops opened a cut under Chico's left eye.

Still Vejar handed out the solid

Blairstown Downs Pocono Home Quintet Suffers Fifth Straight Loss

Chestnuthill Falls Before Warriors, 40-35

Brookheadville — Chestnuthill High dropped its second game of the season to the Pocono Warriors last night, 40-35, in a single game played on the losing club's home court. However, even in defeat the Chestnuthill charges of Coach Otto "Junior" Mills showed improvement, after having bowed to the same opposition last month, 37-11.

It was a close game all the way last night, with the home team holding a 7-4 lead at the end of the first quarter and deadlocked with the Warriors at halftime, 17-17.

Big Stanza

The Warriors led the contest in the third period with a 12-5 advantage in the scoring, even though Chestnuthill had the better of the final stanza, 13-11.

Chestnuthill made 11 of 25 foul shots, while the Warriors connected on eight of 14 tries from the same distance.

Pocono, despite the support of its home town fans, was able to account for but one lone goal from the foul line, while Pocono could ring the bell on only ten of 35 attempts from the same distance.

The score at this point found Blairstown on the long end of a 36-10 count and it didn't change the outcome of the contest even a little bit when Pocono had the better of the going during the final eight minutes of action, 14-11.

Blairstown made 13 of 25 shots from the foul line, while Pocono could ring the bell on only ten of 35 attempts from the same distance.

Sterk and Meschack, with 14 and 12 markers respectively, led the winning attack, while Larry Peechatka's seven points were high for the losing aggregation.

Pocono returns to action again on Tuesday, when the blue and white clad cagers play host to the Alumni on the same court.

Bangor Dumps Nazareth, 61-50

Bangor — Bangor High registered its initial basketball victory of the season against Lehigh-Northampton League competition last night, when the charges of Coach John Heard took the measure of Nazareth, 61-50, on the Bangor boards. However, Nazareth saved some face by winning the junior varsity battle, 67-19.

Paced by the spirited Asa Pysner, who accounted for 24 points on nine field goals and six foul shots, Bangor held the upper hand all the way, except for a three-point deficit during the final eight minutes.

Damage

The Slaters did the bulk of their damage during the first half, while Nazareth, who has now dropped three league verdicts, had a slight edge during the last 16 minutes.

Bangor made 11 of 20 foul shots, while Nazareth could register on only four of 20 tosses from the charity line.

Carnevale To Manage At Schenectady

Schenectady, N.Y. (AP) — Danny Carnevale, who led Wilmington, Del., to the playoff title in the Interstate league last year, was named manager of the Schenectady baseball team in the Eastern league yesterday.

Carnevale's appointment was announced by Joe Reardon, farm director of the Philadelphia Phillies. The Phils have a working agreement with the class "A" Blue Jays. Carnevale succeeds Lee Riley, who will manage the Phillies class "B" farm club in Wilmington.

Playing Leader

Reardon said Carnevale would be a playing manager, probably filling a utility role. He played shortstop for Scranton and Utica in the Eastern league.

Carnevale, 33, broke into baseball in 1937 with Cornwall in the Canadian-American league and spent several years with Buffalo in the International league.

He managed Carbondale in the North Atlantic league for two years, and spent one year each with Bradford in the Pony league and Terre Haute in the Three-I league before joining Wilmington. All his clubs won pennants or playoffs.

Carnevale lives in Buffalo.

McColl Undecided About Grid Future

Honolulu, O.P. — Big Bill McColl, Stanford's All-American end, said yesterday he hasn't "given any serious thought to turning professional."

"I've had no offers yet," said McColl when asked about speculation by California sportswriters. He is here for Sunday's college All-Star Hula Bowl football clash with the Hawaii All-Stars.

Medical School

"The only thing I know is that I will be in medical school next year, no matter what," he added. "It looks doubtful that I will play pro."

Fifty College Football Stars Graduate From Amateurism To Professionalism In Senior Bowl

Mobile, Ala. (AP) — Fifty college football stars—including six all-Americans—made a slippery transition today from amateurism to professionalism.

The site will be a soggy, rain-laden field in Mobile in a game growing in importance by the year—the Senior Bowl.

Here in early January each year the final college game of the season is played. When players trot on the field their rating is as pure amateur as possible in the sense of subsidized college football.

When they leave the field they're professionals. Members of the winning team are "tainted" with $500 hard earned money. Members of the losing team get $400 each.

Two previous Senior Bowls flopped financially. The first was played in Jacksonville, Fla., in 1950.

Last January after the contest had been moved to Mobile, interest, fans and necessary operating cash increased—but not enough. A new Mobile group bought out the old Nashville, Tenn., owners.

This year?—local sponsors have their fingers crossed, their hopes up and their pocketbooks open. This game guarantees players their earnings, and sponsors are ready to make their word good with other funds should ticket sales fail to provide the treasury. A crowd of 20,000, which is a good possibility, would please everybody.

Neither earlier game lacked anything in the way of good, fan appealing football. The South won both games, by 22-13 and 19-18.

This year's squads—called North and South for convenience sake only—are collections of as good college talent as anybody will see on one field.

South all-Americans are tailback "Hank" Lauricella of Tennessee; tackle "Pug" Pearson of Tennessee; guard Ray Beck, Georgia Tech, and center Doug Mosely of Kentucky.

North squad all-Americans are guard Bob Ward of Maryland and tackle Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma. Second team Northern all-Americans are fullback Ed Modelzewski, Maryland and center Dick Hightower, Southern Methodist.

South all-America second teamers are back Jim Dooley, Miami; quarterback "Babe" Parilli, Kentucky; quarterback Bill Wade, Vanderbilt; tackle Bob Werekle, Vanderbilt, and Ted Daffer, of Tennessee. Daffer was on the first all-America team of 1950.

Rawls, Suggs Lead Pack

Jacksonville, Fla., (AP)—National Open champion Betsy Rawls and Georgia's sweet little swinger Louise Suggs clipped three strokes off par yesterday to take the first round lead in the $3,300 Jacksonville Open golf tournament.
Their scores of 73 set a new women's record for the Brentwood Municipal course. It bettered a 74 shot by State amateur champion Frances Owen in a local tournament two years ago.
Miss Rawls, Austin, Texas, playing her first tournament in Florida as a professional, shot 38-35-73 and Miss Suggs, Carrollton, Ga., did it in 35-38-73.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune about the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

It Cost Money To Be Honored

New York (AP)—Inside, Mayor Vincent Impellitteri and police commissioner George P. Monahan were paying tribute yesterday to Sugar Ray Robinson as a leading sports personality of the year.

Different Story
Outside, an unidentified cop was hanging a parking ticket on the Negro middleweight king's salmon-pink Cadillac. There's a traffic drive on.

Sugar Ray found it when he walked out later.

PSES Places 1,410 Workers During Year

Defense contracts and increased factory expansion pushed employment upward last year in this area, according to officials at the local office of the State Employment Service, 79 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

During the 12-month period ending Dec. 31, 1951, the employment offices had "placed" a total of 1,410 workers in industry and other businesses in this area. This figure, in turn, breaks down to show an approximate 27 placements per week accomplished by the office.

Of the 1,410 persons for whom the employment service found jobs, 361 were women. Further, 236 were veterans and 57 physically handicapped in some way. Of this latter group, 24 were disabled veterans.

The continued industrial prosperity in this area is reflected, employment agents feel, in the comparatively high number of persons employed by factories during the year.

A general public belief that construction work on the U. S. Army Signal Corps depot at Tobyhanna would affect local employment was apparently unfounded. Hiring of men for most jobs at the depot was done through offices in Allentown, Philadelphia and Scranton.

During 1951, the local employment offices processed a total of 4,337 initial claims for unemployment compensation with 15,412 "continued" claims also going through during the year to bring the annual total up to 19,749.

This amount, however, includes both inter and inter-state claims which are merely "handled" or "directed" by the local office.

The number does not mean, officials here emphasize, that in excess of nineteen thousand persons were "out of work" during the past year. Included in the total are persons who were temporarily receiving compensation following the shutdown of a shop for inventory or a seasonal layoff.

Placement service at the local offices reached its peak during the months between April and August. There was also a sudden and, to employment officials at least, mysteriously sharp rise in employment during October.

December, usually a "slow month" in any year, was considered "above normal" by local officials last year.

Have Chinese Reds Refused To Carry Ball Any Longer? AP Writer Analyzes Situation

The Russians have now proposed that the U. N. Security Council take up the Korean problem and try for a solution. We can only guess at the reasoning behind this move, but the thought persists in my mind that the answer may be found in China.

The Chinese Communists perhaps have declined to carry the ball any longer.

A year ago, when they intervened in Korea, the Chinese had every right to believe they could score a quick and complete military victory. Their overwhelming superiority in manpower gave them the apparent capability of driving the U. N. Army right off the peninsula. They spent men lavishly, and were quite content to incur heavy losses, not only because manpower is cheap in a Chinese Army, but because they were making progress.

Then, the big drives were stopped. A virtual stalemate came into being. A clear-cut military victory is probably impossible now for either side.

China is not geared for a long and costly war. It lacks the material and the machines that produce all the weapons and the baggage necessary for even a semi-modern Army. Undoubtedly, large quantities of excess material have come to the Chinese from Russia. But the total amount must be limited by the facilities available through the roads and the single railway, the Trans-Siberian, a very long haul, indeed.

In addition, the Communist government is still relatively new in power. Gigantic projects in industrialization, road and railway building, and control of the destructive rivers are on the books. Sooner or later, if the Chinese Reds are to win the support of the Chinese masses, they must make at least a start on some of these works.

Teacher Tests To Be Given Here Feb. 18

Prospective teachers have less than two weeks to submit their completed applications for the national teacher examinations to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., according to Nathan G. Meyer, department of education head at the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

The tests will be given at the college February 16, but the applications must reach the Princeton office not later than January 18.

Applications for the examinations and a bulletin of information describing registration procedures and containing sample test questions may be obtained from Dr. Meyer or directly from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N.J.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the common examinations, which includes tests in professional information, general culture, English expression, and non-verbal reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two optional examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which he may be assigned to teach.

All candidates will receive a ticket of admission advising them of the exact location of the center at which they will be tested, Dr. Meyer said. Candidates for the common examination will report at 8:30 a.m. on February 16 and will begin taking the test at 9 a.m. The common examinations will be concluded at approximately 12:30 p.m., Dr. Meyer advised. Candidates for one or two optional examinations will report again at 1:45 p.m. Those taking only one optional examination should complete this test at about 3:15 p.m., and those taking two optional examinations should finish their tests at approximately 4:45 p.m., according to the time schedule for these examinations.

Nevin Rites Held Friday

Funeral services were held yesterday at Frey funeral home, in South Sterling, for Miss M. Ella Nevin, Rev. Harry Roof, pastor of the South Sterling Methodist charge officiating.

Interment was made in the Pine Grove cemetery, South Sterling.

Honorary pallbearers were Joseph Jacobs, supervising principal of Greene-Dreher-Sterling schools; Dr. Charles Disinger, superintendent of schools, Pike county; Homer Gilpin, president, board of education; Homer Ammerman, superintendent of schools, Wayne county; and Paul T. Ryder, assistant superintendent of schools, in Wayne County.

Acting pallbearers were nephews of the deceased, Glenn and Ray Nevin, Nevin Gilpin, Stephen Carr, Albert and Bruce Bird.

A Soviet newspaper correspondent, He charged waste and inefficiency in the use of Russian weapons and supplies, and noted apathy on the part of the Chinese toward the Korean war as a whole.

All these factors may have come to a climax now.

If so, the Russian motives in proposing a full-dress examination of the problem, in the U. N., could, for once, be sincere.
